Robot equipped with artificial intelligence

DOCFILM

The AI Race

Who's making the decisions about a technology that's set to shape the future of humanity? The race for AI supremacy is in full swing. Between China, the US and Europe. Between tech companies and start-ups. The documentary Smart New World – The AI Race observes key figures from the tech industry, science and politics. They're all working on the development of Artificial Intelligence. And many of them are having to make far-reaching decisions within short time frames. How best to positively harness the technology's potential while at the same time avoiding a science fiction dystopia?

THE 77 PERCENT

Germany's Colonial Past

It's a history of atrocities, oppression and genocide – with a focus on Germany's short lived and yet brutal colonial rule, The 77 Percent takes a look at the effects this history has on young Africans today. In Tanzania there are still descendants alive today of those who resisted the colonialists. The skulls of Chief Songea Mbano, Chief Mangi Meli and Sindato Kiwelu are still in Germany, leaving their families in mourning, unable to bury their dead. In the 77 Percent Street Debate, Edith Kimani discusses this legacy, as well as the destruction of cultures and society, and asks young Tanzanians how this plays a role in their lives.

EUROMAXX

The Truth About German Virtues

What are the Germans best known for throughout the world? For their punctuality, for example, their diligence or sense of order. But do these stereotypes reflect reality? In the series "Your Inner German," Euromaxx takes a closer look at these apparently typically German virtues. Just how punctual, diligent and orderly are the Germans in their everyday lives? And if they do ever stray from the path of German virtues, what does their conscience say?

SPORTS LIFE

Athlete by Day, Gamer by Night

Competitive sports by day, gaming by night: The Mexican diver Dolores Hernández leads a busy life. Although she's represented her country at the Olympics twice, her state sponsorship has been withdrawn. So the top athlete is trying to earn money and attract sponsorship through gaming. A crazy situation, considering that Mexico has won more Olympic medals in diving than in any other discipline.

The rangers Purity (l.) and Leah

DOCFILM

Team Lioness

They never know which animal they will come across next. Leah and Purity are rangers in the Kenyan bushveld. Every day, they travel around Amboseli National Park to track wild animals. Maasai herdsman also live here; conflicts between humans and animals are unavoidable. The young Maasai women are often called in to mediate or offer some reassurance. Not that life is easy for them; they have to battle discrimination and rigid traditions. The documentary Team Lioness – Kenya's First Female Maasai Rangers tells the story of two women working to support a peaceful coexistence between humans and wild animals – and who achieve their own personal independence in the process.

ARTS UNVEILED

Rebel Writers

They're threatened, arrested, tortured and even killed. In many of the world's nations, a writer's life is a dangerous one. The best-known example: Salman Rushdie. The Ayatollah Khomeini issued a fatwa against the Indian-born British-American author in 1989. The accusation levelled at Rushdie: His novel was blasphemous.

In the summer of 2022, the call to murder Rushdie was almost successfully carried out. An attacker stabbed and seriously wounded the author of "The Satanic Verses" as he was about to deliver a public lecture. Arts Unveiled talks to Rushdie and other writers from all over the world and asks the question: Why are dictators so afraid of novels and poems?

TRANSFORMING BUSINESS

Reinventing the Ketchup Cap

Packaging – love it or hate it – the stuff usually ends up in the bin; which is why packaging is becoming a major focus of companies trying to clean up their acts. And creating alternatives isn't always easy. Transforming Business explores the wrapped up world of packaging and takes a look at why Kraft Heinz needed years to develop a recyclable ketchup cap.

PODCAST

Cannabis Cowboys

Have you already discovered our podcasts on YouTube? Cannabis Cowboys is an investigative true crime podcast about JuicyFields – a Berlin company that promised investors huge profits from medical cannabis. When the crowdfunding platform suddenly froze investors' accounts, thousands lost their money. What happened exactly? And who was pulling the strings? In this eight-part podcast, Andreas Becker and Nico Martin explore these questions in an attempt to shed some light on the matter. But the further they delve, the stranger the JuicyFields saga becomes.
