More Than Monopoly: The Story of Lizzie Magie

In 1933 Philadelphia, Charles Darrow created the well-loved board game Monopoly. Why is it then that Macomb, a small town in the Forgottonia region of Illinois, is set on creating the world's largest, augmented reality Monopoly game?

It's all in celebration of Lizzie Magie, inventor of The Landlord's Game—the little-known precursor to Monopoly. Macomb just happens to be where the story of Monopoly beings.

Sunday May 19 7:00PM

The world's largest Monopoly game will be unveiled May 9, 2024 in the Macomb, IL square. Team up with your friends and family to roll the dice and journey through the Macomb downtown, scoring points and learning facts about Lizzie Magie, The Landlord's Game, Monopoly, Macomb, and more. Macomb welcomes you to play anytime you're on the square.
