WQPT PBS NEWS

MONOPOLY SCREENING

Special thanks to everyone who joined us in September for the More Than Monopoly: The Story of Lizzie Magie screening in Macomb. Special thanks to Tri State Public Radio for hosting. We had a great turnout and engaging conversations with viewers.

The documentary tells the story of Lizzie Magie, inventor of The Landlord's Game—the precursor to the famous Monopoly board game; and Macomb, Illinois which made history in 2024 with the world's largest augmented reality Monopoly game. wqpt.org/monopoly

A REASON TO LIVE EVENT

Last month we hosted a screening of excerpts from A Reason to Live, a powerful and insightful documentary on young adult depression and suicide. It shared honest stories highlighting the mental illness behind the second leading cause of death among 15–24 year olds. Along with the screening, WIU professor Dr. Carrie Alexander-Albritton moderated a panel discussion on suicide prevention and mental wellness.

It's so very important to me that PBS is here for future generations.”

That's why LeeAnn Dickson included PBS in her will.

If you're considering adding charitable interests to your plans, consider making WQPT PBS part of your lasting legacy for generations to come.

Find out how you can plan a gift to WQPT PBS, contact Amanda Bergeson at 309/764-2400.
